

NATIONAL ALUMNI COUNCIL
JAMES E. STAMPS AWARD

SUBMIT ONLY ONE NOMINEE PER INSTITUTION

The James E. Stamps Award, named in honor of the founder and first president of the National Alumni Council of UNCF, is presented to an outstanding UNCF alumnus who has made noteworthy contributions to their alma mater and UNCF in the areas of fundraising, giving, facilitation of corporate or government contributions to UNCF or performance of extensive work with UNCF-member groups. The Stamps honoree demonstrates exemplary service and unwavering dedication to HBCUs, consistently exceeding expectations and making a significant impact for UNCF, NAC, and/or a member Institution. The James E. Stamps honoree is recognized for their years of devoted service to HBCUs, consistently demonstrating commitment and making invaluable contributions to UNCF and/or NAC.

Answers to the following questions may be useful in crafting the narrative that accompanies the nomination information:

- What specific services has the nominee rendered on behalf of UNCF?
- Describe briefly a successful event where the nominee provided significant leadership? What were the particular benefits received by UNCF as a result of the event?
- Describe the nominee's involvement in and support of local HBCU events.
- Professionally, how has the recipient demonstrated his/her commitment to advancing the cause of higher education for UNCF students? List at least two examples.
- IAC member? NAA member?

Each nominee will be rated on a scale of 1 to 10.

Each constituent group may submit a nominee for this award ((Constituent Group: IAC, NAA, College/University).
